

Ideals are Realized

Ideals of style—of shape—of line—of color—you have them, of course. May be you've seen such clothes, on other men, and thought "If I could only get clothes like that!"

You can! Here! You can get the identical styles that the best dressed men in the world are wearing—models that fit as clothes should fit.

Clothes full of ginger—snap—go—with all the little touches that proclaim real style. Come and see.

Art Metal Safe

Double steel walls, asbestos-lined, protect your papers from fire, water and vermin. Valuable records you can't insure are kept secure in this steel stronghold.

The Art Metal safe weighs about one-half less than an iron safe of the same outer size—making it twice as easy for you to move. You can arrange the interior to fit your business, changing drawers, shelves and partitions as your requirements change.

This Art Metal safe is a leading example of the leadership goods we offer you.

One of our Factory Representatives will be in Maysville in a few days and if there is any filing equipment that you are interested in he will be glad to give you the benefit of suggestions that 29 years of experience in the filing business could give you. There is no obligation on your part. Just drop us a postal at 2003 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

MUSIC SCHOOL MEETING.

The Maysville Music School had its regular meeting of the club Thursday evening. "Musical Current Events" were read by each pupil. The life of Mozart was discussed. The strange story of the great "Requiem." Mozart's happy marriage and sad death.

Musical numbers were rendered by Helen Hill and Elizabeth Barbour. Miss Moore played a short composition composed by Mozart at the age of 7 years from a sketch book of his baby composition, which had on the first page a quaint picture of the tiny Mozart seated at the clavier.

A few minutes was given to chatting in a general way about practicing. One mother told of the many interruptions from children who try to beguile the pupil away from the piano. One little girl told how a friendly woodpecker tapped in the tree and awakened her at half past four so she arose and practiced two hours before breakfast. Would that every family could be visited by such a woodpecker. The subject will be Mozart again for next meeting.

SERIOUS OPERATION.

Miss Maud Arnold of Mt. Gilead underwent a serious surgical operation at Hayswood Hospital Thursday. She is reported as getting along nicely this morning. Dr. Louis Rancehoff, the noted Cincinnati specialist, assisted by Drs. A. O. Taylor and Winn Ford performed the operation.

Mr. and Mrs. George Diener and family of Market street, moved to their beautiful new home on Forest avenue Thursday.

Mr. Robert Peddicord of Middletown, O., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Cora Peddicord, superintendent of the City Mission.

Senator W. E. Borah was unanimously chosen to head Iowa's delegation of eight to the Republican national convention at the state convention held at Twin Falls Thursday.

SPRINGFIELD WANTS EMMER.

In the notes of the exhibition game at Springfield Wednesday the Cincinnati Enquirer says:

"Frank Emmer was offered to the Springfield club for $500, the price paid for him to the Maysville club. The offer was refused, but after seeing him play today, Mr. Reddle said he would be willing to give that much for him and would take it up with President Herrmann. Emmer made the sensational play of the day and looked good at the bat, too. He is too fast for this company and would better be placed with a Class AA club unless he is retained by the Reds as emergency infielder."

JOSH DEVORE IN ACTION

Josh Devore was evidently kidding his friends when he said that he had split his hand and would probably be out of the game for good. A telegram from Toledo, O., dated April 19, says: "Josh Devore, former of the Philadelphia National League club, played the outfield today for Milwaukee in the American Association. Devore was purchased outright, according to Manager Clark of the Brewers. His first day's record in the association was one hit in four times at bat."
